Passionate About Delivering Exceptional Home Care

There is no place like home and at Elderly Companions we are passionate about delivering exceptional home care help for people that wish to stay at home for the long term.

Elderly companions is perfect for those who are looking for help at home and within their day to day life and who are not quite ready to move out of their home and into a retirement residence.

The added support around your day to day life will mean you are able to live as independently as possible, without feeling like you are leaning on your loved ones to get essential tasks done and remain in your home and community for as long as possible.

Your carer can assist you with almost everything such as:

- Laundry and ironing
- Preparing your favourite meals/making tea and coffee
- Driving to appointments
- Running errands
- Ensuring your home is kept clean and tidy to your standards
- Making beds/washing and changing bed linen
- Feeding pets and taking them on walks
- Vacuuming
- Organising activities
- Taking you to social events
- Grocery shopping and unpacking groceries
